WHAT YOUR NUMBERS SAY

A room full of coaches who want a next move

Your niche is instructional coaching: strategies for the coaches who support teachers. The change you create is turning coaches who run out of ideas when an approach flops into coaches who always have a next option for each teacher.

The content that works

COMMENT-TO-GET POSTS

Your coaching menu post ("Comment STARTUP for the link") drew 124 comments and 116 likes. The Instructional Coaching Planner video drew 143 comments, and your back-to-school post 97. When you give coaches a word to comment, they comment.

HONEST QUESTIONS ABOUT THE ROLE

Your 17/09 video asking what coaches were taught that doesn't actually work reached 1,330 views and 28 likes, your most-viewed recent video. "Have you ever hidden in the bathroom?" reached 536 views.

Your three content pillars

1 • STRATEGY AND SYSTEMS

Coaching menus, needs assessments, the planner and the back-to-school checklist.

2 • THE REAL JOB

Venting, hiding in the bathroom, leaving your coffee behind, and teachers not knowing what your role is.

3 • READING THE TEACHER

Feedback conversations, podcast episodes, and refusing to use the same approach with every teacher.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Your products teach the strategies. The next step is applying them.

You already sell a book, a Start-Up course and a toolbox. Each of them teaches the strategies. The step after them is choosing the right strategy for a specific teacher, and that is where the four products in this audit sit, next to what you already sell.

"My book, Expand Your Coaching Toolbox. It includes 20 strategies so if something doesn't work with one teacher, you have other options to try!"

You, in a DM on 30/09

OBSERVED

- About 13,200 followers, mostly instructional coaches and educators.
- You already sell Expand Your Coaching Toolbox, the Start-Up course and the Coaching Strategy Toolbox.
- Your 17/09 video asking what coaches were taught that doesn't work is your most-viewed recent video (public data).

INFERRED, STILL TO TEST

- Readers of the book want help matching the right strategy to their own teachers.
- You haven't said whether readers ask to work with you directly. That is the question the first post tests, before anything is built.

How the four products line up with what you sell now

WHAT EXISTS	WHAT IT DOES	THE NEXT STEP IT OPENS
Expand Your Coaching Toolbox	20 strategies, so you have options when one doesn't work	Ebook: When a Strategy Flops
Start-Up course	Choosing your strategies and building a coaching menu	Course: Matching the Strategy to the Teacher
Your teachers, live	Not yet offered	Group programme and one-to-one mentoring, on the coach's own cases

None of this replaces the book, the course or the toolbox. Each new product points back to them.

The four products

PRODUCT	PRICE	WHAT THE FIGURE RESTS ON	REVENUE (ESTIMATE)
Ebook	$29	32 buyers x $29	$928
Online course	$200	32 buyers x $200	$6,400
Group coaching (8 weeks)	$500	2 to 8 people per cohort; a year capped at 32 buyers	$1,000–$4,000 per cohort $16,000 a year
One-to-one (8 weeks)	$1,500	1 to 20 hours a week; a year capped at 32 buyers	$1,500–$30,000 per 8 weeks $48,000 a year

GROUP COACHING, WORKED OUT

Per 8-week cohort: 2 to 8 people x $500 = $1,000 to $4,000. Six cohorts a year hold up to 48 places (8 x 6), but you have 32 estimated buyers, so with 32 buyers the group programme could make you $32 \times $500 =$ $16,000 a year.

ONE-TO-ONE, WORKED OUT

Per 8 weeks: 1 to 20 hours a week (1 to 20 clients at a time) x $1,500 = $1,500 to $30,000. Six blocks a year hold up to 120 programmes (20 x 6), but with 32 buyers, one-to-one could make you $32 \times $1,500 =$ $48,000 a year.

The range and the averages

The minimum is always the ebook. The maximum is the largest year figure across the four products, which for you is one-to-one coaching.

Minimum	$928
Ebook sales: 32 x $29
Maximum	$48,000
One-to-one year figure: 32 x $1,500 (larger than group at $16,000 and course at $6,400)
Median	$4,450
Figures in order: $928, $2,500, $6,400, $15,750. Middle two: ($2,500 + $6,400) / 2
Mean	$6,394.50
($928 + $6,400 + $2,500 + $15,750) / 4 = $25,578 / 4
Mid-range	$24,464
(minimum + maximum) / 2 = ($928 + $48,000) / 2

For the median and mean, the coaching products are counted at the middle of their 8-week ranges: group coaching at $2,500 (the middle of $1,000 to $4,000) and one-to-one at $15,750 (the middle of $1,500 to $30,000). The mid-range uses the year maximum. All figures are estimates.

The same numbers on one scale

Solid bars are single figures or the 8-week range; the lighter part runs on to the year figure. Dashed line: median. Red line: mean.

LAUNCH PLAN

Ask first, then build

1

Ask first

Post a story question asking coaches which teacher they're stuck with right now, and why. Their answers tell you which cases the course and the coaching should start with.

2

Film the course from the most common answers

Pick the teacher situations that come up most and film Matching the Strategy to the Teacher around them. You send the footage; Autora builds the rest.

3

Waitlist, readers first, then a real launch

Open a waitlist and invite readers of Expand Your Coaching Toolbox first. Then launch with a clear date and a real close.

"We really have to work hard to understand teacher motivations, because the way they interact with us can give us clues about what they need from us and how to proceed next!"

You, in a DM on 30/09. Slide 2 of your first post is built on this.

TWO THINGS TO AVOID

- Don't imply the book, the Start-Up course or the toolbox falls short. The new products are the next step after them.
- Don't invent demand or sales. Let the comments and the waitlist show what is there.

THE FIRST POST

A carousel that tests the demand before anything is built

It uses the format that already works for you: a carousel with a word to comment, like STARTUP on your coaching menu post.

- 1 What do you do when your go-to strategy flops with a teacher?
- 2 The way a teacher interacts with you is a clue to what they need next.
- 3 I'm thinking of a programme where we work through your own teachers, one case at a time.
- 4 Comment "TOOLBOX" if you'd want in.

CAPTION

Hey coach! What do you do when your go-to strategy flops with a teacher? I refuse to use the same approach with every teacher. I'm thinking of a programme where we work through your own teachers, one case at a time. Comment TOOLBOX if you'd want in.

What it measures: how many coaches comment TOOLBOX. That count, and the story answers from step 1, are the demand signal. Nothing is built until you've seen them.

WHAT TO DO NEXT

Three small moves this week

1

Post the story question

Which teacher are you stuck with right now, and why?

2

Publish the TOOLBOX carousel

Four slides, ready to go, on page 11.

3

Say yes to the ebook draft

Autora writes When a Strategy Flops from your posts; you read it and confirm.

Reply to this DM and I'll walk you through the numbers and what to build first.

All figures are estimates based on your public profile data and this audit, using a fixed model: 5% of followers engaged, 5% of those buying.

How this was made: I build automations, and I used AI for the analysis, which is why this took an evening rather than a fortnight.
