Nervous-system education for perfectionists and overwhelmed ADHD brains who freeze before small tasks: you help them start by making the next step ridiculously small.

Assumes 5% of followers are engaged and 5% of those buy; group coaching is 2 to 8 people per 8-week cohort; one-to-one is 1 to 20 hours a week; the maximum is a full year of six 8-week blocks. Averages count each coaching product at the middle of its 8-week range.

Who does what: you film the lessons and run the sessions. Autora hosts and runs everything else, with nothing to pay upfront.

01 · AUDIENCE SNAPSHOT

What your numbers say

Nearly fifty thousand people follow you to read long, honest captions about why the body still braces when the mind already understands. They are getting that thinking for free. The only paid doors today are a book on Amazon and one-to-one work.

The content that works

REELS CARRY THE REACH

Your quantum-possibilities reel ("Okay, this is where my brain starts having fun") reached 9,712 views and 382 likes, by far your strongest recent post. The reel on giving more energy than you receive reached 2,414 views.

CAROUSELS CARRY THE CONVERSATION

Your teaching carousels draw the most comments: 13 on "Most people don't need more information", 12 on "You've tried the breathing exercises". That is where readers talk back, and where demand can be tested.

Three content pillars

PILLAR 1

The body that still braces

Why you can understand something intellectually and still feel it in your body; why a two-minute task can feel like an emergency.

PILLAR 2

Energy and letting go

Letting people go, leaving the group chats, noticing when you always initiate. Reels on this reached 824 to 2,414 views each.

PILLAR 3

Who you are when you're not bracing

Identity, next chapters and healing while being a mom of two: the story behind the method.

"We slow it down, notice what your body is doing, and make the next step ridiculously small. The goal isn't to do it perfectly."

You, in a DM on 19 September. This is the method every product in this audit is built on.

02 · THE WORKING

Where the number comes from

Every figure in this audit is an estimate built from one public number, your follower count, and a fixed model. Here is the working, step by step, so you can check every line.

F · Followers 49,354

Public data from your profile

E · Engaged audience 2,467

5% of 49,354 = 2,467.7, rounded down to whole people

B · Buyers 123

5% of 2,467 = 123.35, rounded down (0.25% of followers)

The four products

PRODUCT	PRICE	RESTS ON	REVENUE (ESTIMATE)
Ebook	$29	123 buyers	$3,567
Online course	$200	123 buyers	$24,600
Group coaching (8 weeks)	$500	2 to 8 people per cohort	$1,000–$4,000 per cohort
One-to-one coaching (8 weeks)	$1,500	1 to 20 hours a week	$1,500–$30,000 per 8 weeks

Ebook: $123 \times $29 = $3,567$. Course: $123 \times $200 = $24,600$. All figures are estimates in US dollars.

The two coaching ranges, per 8 weeks and per year

GROUP COACHING · $500

Per cohort: $2 \times $500 = $1,000$ to $8 \times $500 = $4,000$.

A year: six 8-week cohorts $\times$ 8 places = 48 places. With 123 buyers, all 48 fill: $48 \times \$500 = \$24,000$ a year.

ONE-TO-ONE · $1,500

Per 8 weeks: $1 \times $1,500 = $1,500$ to $20 \times $1,500 = $30,000$.

A year: six 8-week blocks $\times$ 20 clients = 120 programmes. With 123 buyers, all 120 fill: $120 \times \$1,500 = \$180,000$ a year.

The range and the averages

Minimum

$3,567

The ebook sales: $123 \times $29$

Maximum

$180,000

A full year of one-to-one at 20 hours a week: $120 \times $1,500$. Larger than the group year ($24,000) and the course ($24,600)

Range · estimate

$3,567 to $180,000

Ebook sales at the bottom, a full one-to-one year at the top

Three averages

Coaching is counted at the middle of its 8-week range: group $($1,000 + $4,000) \div 2 = $2,500$; one-to-one $($1,500 + $30,000) \div 2 = $15,750$. In order, the four figures are $2,500, $3,567, $15,750 and $24,600.

Median · estimate

$9,658.50

Mean of the two middle figures: $($3,567 + $15,750) \div 2 = $19,317 \div 2$

Mean · estimate

$11,604.25

$($2,500 + $3,567 + $15,750 + $24,600) \div 4 = $46,417 \div 4$

Mid-range · estimate

$91,783.50

$(\text{Minimum} + \text{maximum}) \div 2 = ($3,567 + $180,000) \div 2 = $183,567 \div 2$

The same figures on one scale

Solid bars are the ebook and course figures and each coaching product's 8-week range; lighter shading runs on to a full year. Every figure is an estimate.

03 · THE PRODUCT LADDER

From the book to one-to-one, with steps between

Right now there is a book at one end and one-to-one work at the other, and nothing in between. Four products built on your “ridiculously small next step” method fill that gap.

04 · WHO DOES WHAT

You teach. We run the rest.

Autora hosts and runs everything: the format, the build, the platform and hosting, the checkout and payments, delivery, the marketing and the backend. There is nothing to pay upfront. Autora is paid from a share of what the products make.

Your part

EBOOK

Read it and confirm you're happy for it to go out. Next to no work.

ONLINE COURSE

Film the lessons on the method and send us the footage.

GROUP COACHING

Run the live sessions with each cohort of 2 to 8 people.

ONE-TO-ONE

Run the one-hour weekly sessions with each client.

What Autora does

EBOOK

Writes it from your own posts and book themes, designs it, hosts it, sells it and delivers it.

ONLINE COURSE

Turns your footage into the course, hosts it, sells it and delivers it to every student.

GROUP COACHING

Sales page, booking, payments, onboarding and marketing for every cohort.

ONE-TO-ONE

Sales page, booking, payments, onboarding and marketing for every client.

WHAT THAT MEANS IN PRACTICE

You never build a sales page, set up a checkout or chase a payment. Your time goes where only you can put it: on camera for the lessons, and in the room for the sessions.

06 · LAUNCH PLAN

Ask first, then build

One question is still open: whether your readers come back wanting more than the book. You didn't say either way, so the plan starts by asking them.

WEEK 1 · STORIES, THEN THE TEST POST

1

Ask which small task freezes them most

Run a story question: "Which small task freezes you most?" Follow it with the four-slide test post on the next page and count the "SMALL" comments. Your carousels already draw your most comments, so this is the right format to test in.

WEEKS 2-4 · FILMING

2

Film the course, starting with the top answer

Whatever task your readers name most becomes the first lesson. You film from the method you already teach and send the footage; Autora builds the course around it.

LAUNCH · CLEAR DATE, REAL CLOSE

3

Open a waitlist, book readers first

Open a waitlist and invite readers of your book first. Then launch with a clear open date and a real close, so the decision has an edge to it.

07 · THE FIRST POST

Test the demand before anything is built

A four-slide carousel in your voice. It names the exact pattern your posts already describe, then asks one question. The comment count tells you whether to build.

- 1 It isn't laziness. Some small tasks just feel loaded.
- 2 When perfectionism, ADHD and nervous-system activation overlap, a two-minute email can feel like a threat.
- 3 I'm thinking of a guided programme that walks you through making the next step ridiculously small.
- 4 Comment "SMALL" if you'd want it.

CAPTION

You know the coping skills. You can explain exactly why the email feels heavy. And it still sits there. What I teach is simple: we slow it down, notice what your body is doing, and make the next step ridiculously small. The goal isn't to do it perfectly. It's to teach your nervous system that starting doesn't have to feel so loaded. If you'd want me to walk you through it, comment SMALL.

Keep it clean: no clinical, diagnostic or treatment claims (this is education and coaching, not therapy), and no reader numbers or book sales.

08 · NEXT STEPS

What to do next

- 1 Post the story question and the test carousel
One week, two posts. The answers tell us which lesson to film first.
- 2 Read the ebook draft
We write The Ridiculously Small Next Step from your posts. You confirm it's ready to go out.
- 3 Film the first lesson
Send us the footage. We host and run everything else, with nothing to pay upfront.

Reply to this DM and I'll walk you through the numbers and what to build first.

All figures are estimates based on your public profile data and this audit, using a fixed model: 5% of followers engaged, 5% of those buying, fixed prices for each product.

How this was made: I build automations, and I used AI for the analysis, which is why this took an evening rather than a fortnight.
